Lineups

The concept of PT Live gives more use to Live cards beyond league, tournament and Perfect Draft play. Now, you can use those cards to earn Perfect Points every day based on those players' real-life performances. How do you do that? By setting a lineup of 15 players based on the player's primary position on his Perfect Team Live card (e.g. Mookie Betts is a shortstop)

- 1 – Catcher
- 1 – First Baseman
- 1 – Second Baseman
- 1 – Third Baseman
- 1 – Shortstop
- 1 – Left Fielder
- 1 – Center Fielder
- 1 – Right Fielder
- 1 – Designated Hitter
- 2 – Utility
- 2 – Starting Pitchers
- 2 – Relief Pitchers

NOTE: Any batter can be used as a DH or Utility, and players may not appear multiple times in a lineup.

The lineup also has limits for the level of cards, so you can only have the following breakdown:

- 2 Perfect Cards
- 3 Diamond Cards
- 4 Gold Cards

Silver, Bronze and Iron do not have limits. However, you can substitute a card from a lower level for a card at a higher level (e.g. 5 Diamond cards and no Perfect cards or 5 Gold cards, 4 Diamond cards and no Perfect cards).

NOTE: Your roster from the previous day will carry over to the current day if you do not meet the roster deadline for that day. The daily deadline to submit your roster will be announced next week. For the season-opening Seoul Series lineups, however, they must be submitted by 3:00am ET ahead of the 6:00am ET start on Wednesday, March 20 and Thursday, March 21, respectively.

Points and leader boards are updated just after 6:00am ET each day for the previous day's games.

PT 25 has a BONUS for PT Live

Announced last week, PT Live points will be factored in to the PTWC standings to help you improve or qualify your position. The season points will be divided by 50 for scale in those leader boards, so you can give yourself a boost by playing PT Live!

Please note: Games are only scored when they are complete. On the day the game is suspended, no points are awarded. When the game completes, all the points from the game will be awarded, based on team's current lineups (effectively treating the suspended game like it was a double-header on the day it resumes).
