

PORTLAND BREAKS TEAM RECORD WITH 31 AT QUINNIPIAC

4X NEW ENGLAND CHAMPS CRUSH HOSTS; BEANE FINISHES WITH FIVE HITS & SIX RBI

NEW HAVEN, CONN. (June 21, 1877) – Portland B.C. has started 1877 by running rampant over their New England competition, and they entered Thursday's game at Quinnipiac in Connecticut with a 23-8 record. It was no contest at Davenport Field, as Portland ravaged their hosts:

	NATIONAL BASE BALL ORGANIZATION PORTLAND BASEBALL CLUB AT QUINNIPIAC BASEBALL CLUB GAME ID: 768 - THURSDAY, JUNE 21ST, 1877 - GAME LOG
	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	R	H	E
Portland Baseball Club (24-8)	8	0	5	2	6	5	0	0	5	31	25	8
Quinnipiac Baseball Club (13-19)	0	5	0	2	0	0	0	0	0	7	11	19

The game got off to a lightning-fast start, with Portland scoring eight times in the top of the first and Quinnipiac responding with five runs during the bottom of the second.

Going into the third inning with the game looking like it would be a close, but high-scoring, affair, Portland proceeded to outscore Quinnipiac 23-2 over the remaining seven innings and exit with a team record for Runs in a 31-7 victory.

Portland had 25 base hits during the game, and all nine members of the lineup, including P Francis Molinari, finished with multiple Hits. Four players had 3+ Hits, two had 4+, and one had five: SS Louis Beane.

Beane's afternoon in New Haven:

- T1: Sacrifice Bunt to P (1 out)
- T1: 2-run Double to LCF off V. Adriansen
- T3: 1-run Single past SS off V. Adriansen (R)
- T4: Single to RF off a. Taylor (R)
- T5: Reached via Error by 2B C. Kragholm (R)
- T6: 2-run Double to RF off W. Girardi (R)
- T8: Line Out to 3B (1 out)
- T9: 1-run Single to RCF off M. Gibson (R)
- TOTAL: 5/7 (2 2B, 7 TB), 6 R, 6 RBI, SAC BUNT, 116 GMSC

Beane's 116 Game Score equals that of Charles Fletcher from his six-hit Cycle thirteen days ago (6/6, 2 2B, 2 3B, HR, 4 R, 5 RBI) for the N.B.B.O. season high. The performance raised his Average to .348 (.796 OPS) with thirty RBI through Portland's first 32 games in 1877.

The smashing win left Portland 24-8 and six games in the clear atop the New England standings. Quinnipiac is 13-19, in seventh place and eleven games behind Portland.
