And with that, what had been a 7-0 Eagle lead that looked a sure win was now a 14-7 Binghamton advantage going into the late innings. Eagle scored twice in the 7th and once more in the 8th, but that was all the scoring they could muster as Binghamton's mighty inning propelled them to victory.

There were roughly 1,460 in attendance at the Vestal Avenue Grounds, and for a memorable half-inning they were treated to quite a show by the home team.
