

DAY HAS A FIELD DAY AT BUNKER HILL

VETERAN C HAS 5 HITS, 4 RUNS, & 4 RBI AS DIAMOND ST. WINS BATTLE OF NBBO NEWCOMERS

BOSTON (May 23, 1878) – Coastal Championship newcomers Diamond State & Bunker Hill met for the second game of their Week Three series at Bunker Hill Field on Thursday, with the team from Delaware coming out on top:

 DIAMOND STATE BASEBALL CLUB	NATIONAL BASE BALL ORGANIZATION DIAMOND STATE B.C. AT BUNKER HILL B.C. GAME ID: 269 - THURSDAY, MAY 23RD, 1878 - GAME LOG
	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	R	H	E
Diamond State B.C. (3-9)	0	2	0	1	1	5	0	2	0	11	14	8
Bunker Hill B.C. (2-10)	4	0	0	0	0	0	2	0	3	9	10	5

The Bostonians started the game in fine fashion, sending four across the plate in B1 on three separate run-scoring Singles. However, Delaware would soon gain control of the game and go on to score nine straight runs over the next six innings before Bunker Hill was able to score twice in B7 to make it a 9-6 game. Diamond St. scored twice more in T8 to move their lead back up to five (11-6), and that sealed the result as a late Bunker Hill rally came up short.

The hero for Diamond St. was new C Jonathan Day, a 3x All-Star who only signed with the team three days ago:

- T2: 1-run Triple to CF off P. Oldaker (R)
- T4: Leadoff Single to CF off P. Oldaker (R)
- T5: 1-run Single past 2B off P. Oldaker
- T6: 1-run Single to CF off P. Oldaker (R)
- T8: 1-run Single past SS off J. Ledden (R)

- TOTAL: 5/5 (3B), 4 R, 4 RBI, 96 GMSC

Day appears to have acclimated himself quite well to his new club and squadmates, as through two games in a Diamond St. jersey he's reached base eight times, batting 7/9 (.778) and reaching once via Base on Balls.

Unfortunately for Delaware St., the win was only their third of the season. They are 3-9 while Bunker Hill fell to 2-10 with the loss, with the pair taking up the bottom two places in the Coastal Championship standings.
