

BUNKER HILL CLOBBERS MARYLAND IN BALTIMORE

BOSTONIANS SCORE MULTIPLE RUNS IN 7/9 INNINGS; BEAT COASTAL CO-LEADERS BY 21

BALTIMORE, MLD. (June 26, 1879) – Another day, and another story from Baltimore. This one involves the game between Maryland and visiting Bunker Hill, a game in which Bunker Hill got out to an early lead and never let up:

NATIONAL BASE BALL ORGANIZATION
BUNKER HILL B.C. AT MARYLAND BASEBALL CLUB
GAME ID: 760 - THURSDAY, JUNE 26TH, 1879 - GAME LOG

	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	R	H	E
Bunker Hill B.C. (18-14)	3	0	2	5	1	3	2	2	7	25	21	3
Maryland Baseball Club (19-13)	0	0	1	0	0	0	0	3	0	4	12	10

Bunker Hill scored three times in T1 thanks to a one-run Single by 3B Oliver Johnson and a two-run Single by 2B William Gillette. They increased the lead to 5-0 in T3 before Maryland responded with a run, but the visitors then scored the next thirteen runs, taking an 18-4 lead by the time Maryland put runs on the board again. Bunker Hill apparently wasn't happy with Maryland's three-run B8, because they responded with a seven-run rally in T9, one punctuated with a Grand Slam by substitute 1B Will Weathersbee, that gave the game its 25-4 final score.

Johnson & Gillette were the stars of the day for Bunker Hill:

- BH 3B Oliver Johnson: 5/7 (2 2B), 5 R, 3 RBI, 7 TB
- BH 2B William Gillette: 4/5 (all 1B), 3 R, 6 RBI, 1 BB

Four other Bunker Hill batsmen – RF Geoffrey Baker (2/4), CF Cyrus Foster (2/4), C Ed Phillip (2/6), & SUB Frank Reed (2/3) – had two base hits over the course of the afternoon. They also saw SUB Will Weathersbee finish with four RBI thanks to his Grand Slam.

Maryland remains co-leaders of the Coastal Championship at 19-13 in spite of the loss because Trenton United lost 10-4 at last-place Brighton. Bunker Hill is in a tie with P.B.C.C. for third place, with both teams one game back at 18-14.
