SOLAR FLARES:

The Solars continue their struggles away, going 1-2 in Jacksonville last week. For the season they are 1-5 on the road against division opponents. The team's defense has been dreadful and their offense nearly nonexistent en route to posting a -10 run differential... good enough for 13th in the WML. As a team the Solars are batting a paltry .228, only besting the lowly Gwinnett Stripers at the plate in the RL South. Through six games this season the only bright spots are the pitching of Boogie Barnett (1-0, 1.80 ERA, 11 K's, and 3 BB's in 15 innings pitched) and first baseman Steve Rose who is off to a fast start with 2 HR's, 1.563 OPS and a 0.7 WAR).

A FUTURE SO BRIGHT:

Backup First Baseman, Sam Parker, is our Solar Star of the week. In our lone victory of the season, Sam Parker aided the Orlando cause with a grand slam home run in the top of the ninth. For the game, the pinch hitter was 1-1 with a home run. He drove in 4 runs and scored once. So far this season Parker is 3-4 at the plate with a .750 Avg, 2 HR's and 5 RBIs. Known for putting his best effort forward in all situations, we're told that Sam is a huge EDM fan and often challenges his teammates to glowstick dance offs prior to each game.

WE MAJORS LEAGUE LEADERS:

Fayetteville's William Tuttle has been all suns out, guns out in the first two weeks of the season. That's some serious power he's put on display!

Our own CL Caleb Skinner has the dubious distinction of being the first pitcher to rack up three L's in the opening series of the season. This might be an all-time league record, not sure, we were too depressed to look it up.
