

BEDFORD'S JOHNSON RECORDS SIX-HIT GAME!

BROOKLYN, July 23 (1857) – Roughly six weeks ago, the Northeastern League was host to base ball's first six-hit game, courtesy of Scranton's Raymond Clough. This afternoon, it was the New York League's turn thanks to Bedford B.B.C. leadoff hitter Charlie Johnson.

Johnson stepped into the Batter's Box seven times and cracked hits in six of them:

- TOP 1ST: Leadoff Single
- TOP 3RD: Infield Single
- TOP 5TH: Bunt Single
- TOP 6TH: Infield Single
- TOP 7TH: Single
- TOP 9TH: Single
- TOTAL: 6/6, 3 R, SB

Thanks to Johnson's efforts, Bedford won the contest at Empire B.B.C. by the score of 13-8 in front of a little over 1,300 spectators. The two teams combined for 32 hits.
